

Sleep Train Arena

Arena title	Sleep Train Arena
Capacity	17,317
About	Sleep Train Arena , originally ARCO Arena and later Power Balance Pavilion, is an indoor arena located in Sacramento, California, United States. Opened in 1988, it is the home of the Sacramento Kings of the National Basketball Association (NBA). The arena is named for The Sleep Train, a chain of mattress and bed retailers based in Rocklin, California.
Logo	 The logo for Sleep Train Arena features the words "SLEEP" and "TRAIN" in a bold, red, sans-serif font, stacked vertically. Below "TRAIN" is the word "ARENA" in a smaller, blue, sans-serif font. To the right of the text is a blue silhouette of a steam locomotive.

The words "SLEEP TRAIN ARENA" are prominently displayed in large, white, three-dimensional letters across the upper section of the building. The arena is surrounded by green trees and a well-maintained lawn. In the foreground, there is a paved area with several blue bollards and a large, golden number "6" sculpture. A small purple sign is visible near the entrance.
